(Designation) Assistant Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Separate Revenue.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Kept below FINANCE Department.
(with the peon's service book and conduct sheet and the widow's application and descriptive roll).

Sir,

A.H.A. TODD, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Ag.3rd Member, Board of Revenue & Commissioner of Excise and Separate Revenue.

REFERENCE:

The Board submits to the Government an application for compassionate gratuity received from Basamma, widow of late peon No:133 Lakogi of Bellary circle, who died on 31-12-35 after putting in a substantive service of 14 years and 2 months.

2. The deceased has left behind him a daughter aged 20 years and a son 12 years old besides the widow. He did not possess any moveable or immoveable property.

He did not insure his life nor did he contribute to any fund. The widow is destitute. She has no near relatives who are in a position or under an obligation to maintain her and her son. Her daughter is married and has a son 2 years old. During the revenue enquiry into the financial condition of the widow, her son-in-law has offered to support her. But the Revenue Divisional Officer, Kurnool, thinks that he would not be able to do so as he is only a cooly and has nothing to depend upon. The son-in-law has all along been a deserter and a drug addict and he did not even turn up for his father-in-law's funeral. The widow is now reported to be residing at Bellary in the house of one Tippamma who has offered it to her free of rent. She is now maintaining herself and her son by selling rice cakes.

3. The deceased was drawing a pay of Rs.17/- per mensem when he died. His service book and conduct sheet are enclosed. The Board recommends the grant to the widow of a compassionate gratuity of Rs.150/- payable at Bellary Treasury.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

Submitted to Inspector for Casual Consideration

The deceased person had died leaving his duties to contribute subsistence. I learnt he left nothing for his family. He left behind his wife, a son & a daughter.
His daughter was married.
His son who is 12 years old is studying and his family is helpless. So I am strongly recommending that his wife may kindly be granted some gratuity to maintain herself with her son who is dependent on her.

(8) Recommendation of the Head of Department.	The Board of Revenue (Sep.Rev) recommends a grant of Rs.150/- to the widow. para 3 p2 c F

2. The position of the Compassionate Grant is as follows :—Total provision for the half year — RS. 25,000

Deduct—Amount sanctioned up to date — 5,507

Balance available — 19,493 (R)

3. The rules regarding grant of compassionate gratuities are in G.O. No. 120, Finance (Pension), dated 22nd March 1932.

4. Unless the total allotment is increased, the average amount available for each case likely to be sanctioned in the current half year is about Rs. 150/-

The maximum amount admissible in this case is Rs. (17 X 12)= 204/-

(R) p2 5. Under Rule 6 (ii) of the Compassionate Gratuity Rules, compassionate gratuity shall not ordinarily be granted where the application for the grant is submitted more than one year after the death of the Government servi

In the present case the peon died on 31-12-35, but the application was received by Government ~~on the~~ from the Board on 28th May 1937. The widow's application to the Excise authorities is however dated 8-2-1936, i.e., less than a year from the date of death of her husband. The subsequent delay in the submission of the application to Government was apparently due to the institution of enquiries into the financial condition of the family.
